

Mr and Mrs. Westover, living near Rexburg, Ida., awoke one morning last week to find their little girl Hazel a corpse lying between them. She had been suffering with measles which had taken a pneumonia form, but nothing serious was anticipated.—Ketchum Keystone.

---