

Family Forms Sunday School By Themselves

Quincy, Wash.

WHEN ARNOLD WESTOVER, president of the Quincy Branch, and his family of eight children, in-laws, and grandchildren, all attend Sunday School, it makes a pretty good Sunday School of itself.

President Westover was sustained as president of the branch when it was organized last April by J. Carroll Bagley, president of the Yakima District, of the Northwestern States Mission. Mathias P. Monson and Walter Fufiman are counselors to President Westover.

The accompanying photograph was taken after Sunday School of the entire family and they are: Left to right, first row: Vernell Westover, Kyle Westover, Phyllis Westover, and Myron Hope. Second row: Quinn Westover, Barta Vee Westover, Fae Westover, Mrs. Arnold Westover, President Arnold Westover, Mrs. Artell Westover, Artell Westover, and Gordon Westover. Third row: Mrs. Quinn Westover, Mrs. Loris Westover, Karen Westover, and Loris Westover. Fourth row: Alan Westover, Leon Westover, Mrs. Leon

QUINCY BRANCH PRESIDENT HAS A FAMILY SUNDAY SCHOOL ALL HIS OWN
President and Mrs. Arnold Westover, center, with their family at Sunday School

Westover, Mrs. Darrell Westover, Darrell Westover, Eldon Hope, and Zola Westover Hope.

WestoverFam Dnews 13Oct1948

Clipped By:

jw6295

Sun, Feb 16, 2020